

Parent Consultation on Highfield RSE/PSHE Policy and Implementation

21

Responses

01:36

Average time to complete

Active

Status

1. I think Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) / Personal Social and Health Education (PSHE are important parts of the school curriculum.

Strongly Agree	13
Agree	7
Disagree	0
Strongly disagree	1
Neutral	0

2. The teaching of RSE/PSHE can make a difference to young peoples lives.

Strongly agree	12
Agree	8
Disagree	1
Strongly disagree	0
Neutral	0

3. I am aware of the topics that will be taught in RSE/PSHE at Highfield Schools

Strongly Agree	10
Agree	9
Disagree	1
Strongly disagree	0
Neutral	1

4. Is there anything that we are not covering that you feel we need to address?

Insights

21

Responses

Latest Responses

"School should be teaching education subjects, math, English, sciences,..."

"No"

"No"

16 respondents (80%) answered No for this question.

5. As a parent do you feel you need more advice and guidance on specific topics? How would this best be communicated?

Insights

21

Responses

Latest Responses

"As parent of an SEN child this subject is a complete waste of time "

"I would like to be informed when topics are going to be taught in sch..."

"No"

2 respondents (10%) answered teacher for this question.

